SUBJECT: Determination Regarding Attendance by NASA employees at the Maryland Space Business Roundtable Lunch on November 10, 2015

On Tuesday, October 6, 2015, the Maryland Space Business Roundtable (MSBR), a nonprofit organization under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, will host a lunch at Martin's Crosswinds, Greenbelt, Maryland, at 11:30 a.m. The guest speaker is Dr. Dava Newman, Deputy Administrator, National Aeronautics and Space Administration. The lunch is to address the business environment in Maryland and to provide the opportunity for the aerospace community to share views with colleagues.

Approximately 450 people have been invited to attend, including personnel from other Federal agencies, congressional members and staff, state and local officials, the media, representatives of the aerospace industry and academia, as well as the general public. The estimated cost of the luncheon, including all food and beverages, is $33.00 per person. I find that the event meets the requirements of a "widely attended gathering" as defined in 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(2).

I further determine that there is an Agency interest in having NASA personnel attend the event because it will further Agency programs or operations. Attendance at the event will allow NASA attendees to exchange information regarding various NASA programs.

NASA employees whose duties do not substantially affect the MSBR, or a majority of its members, including NASA employees in non-career positions who are required to sign the ethics pledge under Executive Order 13490, may accept an invitation for free attendance to the event.

However, NASA employees whose duties may substantially affect the MSBR, or a majority of its members, such as by way of procurement duties, should seek an individual determination pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(3)(i) regarding participation in this event from their local ethics counselor.
