

LCROSS

IMPACT NIGHT!

Witness real-time space exploration as the Lunar Crater Observation and Sensing Satellite (LCROSS) impacts the moon to search for water ice and vapor.

NASA Ames Research Center

Exit Hwy. 101 at NASA Parkway, Moffett Field, CA

Thursday Evening through early Friday Morning, October 8th & 9th

(Venue officially opens at 5:30pm)

7:00pm - 9:00pm Thursday

Presentations: S. Pete Worden, NASA Ames Center Director
Charlie Duke, Apollo 16 Astronaut
Victoria P. Friedensen, Advanced Capabilities,
Exploration Systems Mission Directorate, NASA

8:30pm - 3:30am Thursday - Friday

Outdoor Movies: Three Major Motion Pictures Shown

3:30am - 6:00am Friday

Lunar Impact: Live Video Coverage
Expert NASA Commentary

Learn more about LCROSS at: www.nasa.gov/lcross

Open to the Public

Respond early as seating is limited.

FREE ADMISSION

Advance Tickets Required

For limited tent space

To receive your free advance ticket(s), you must visit:

<http://lcross.arc.nasa.gov/impactnight>

