

NASA

COMMERCIAL CREW PROGRAM

Connecticut

Three aerospace providers in the state of Connecticut are working to get American astronauts back into space on U.S. led spacecraft and rockets.

Ensign-Bickford

Simsbury, Connecticut
5th Congressional District
Congresswoman Elizabeth Esty

UTC Aerospace

Windsor Locks, Connecticut
1st Congressional District
Congressman John Larson

Ultra MSI

Wallingford, Connecticut
1st Congressional District
Congressman John Larson

National Aeronautics and Space Administration
Kennedy Space Center
Kennedy Space Center, FL 32899

www.nasa.gov

SP-2014-07-203-KSC

Publication herein does not constitute NASA endorsement of any particular aerospace company or economic data.

* Information gathered from the Aerospace Industries Association and includes data from non-Commercial Crew Program sources.

Connecticut

Senator Richard Blumenthal
Senator Chris Murphy

Aerospace Economic Impact***

Jobs: 42,687
Average Wages: $85,682
Exports: $6,919,282,665