

NASA

COMMERCIAL CREW PROGRAM

Massachusetts

Three aerospace providers in the state of Massachusetts are working to get American astronauts back into space on U.S. led spacecraft and rockets.

Draper Laboratory

Cambridge, Massachusetts
7th Congressional District
Congressman Michael Capuano

Spincraft

N. Billerica, Massachusetts
6th Congressional District
Congressman John Tierney

David Clark Company

Worcester, Massachusetts
2nd Congressional District
Congressman Jim McGovern

Massachusetts

Senator Edward Markey
Senator Elizabeth Warren

Aerospace Economic Impact*

Jobs: 30,171
Average Wages: $99,096
Exports: $1,010,327,367

National Aeronautics and Space Administration
Kennedy Space Center
Kennedy Space Center, FL 32899

www.nasa.gov

SP-2014-07-203-KSC

Publication herein does not constitute NASA endorsement of any particular aerospace company or economic data.

* Information gathered from the Aerospace Industries Association and includes data from non-Commercial Crew Program sources.