

Demonstration of Autonomous Rendezvous Technology (DART)

Case Study Transcript

Flight System Interactions

This chart provides a diagram showing how all sensor information flows into the flight computer which integrates the information and then commands the attitude control thrusters in accordance with the flight profile timeline and established flight rules.