SUBJECT: Determination Regarding Attendance by NASA Employees at an STS-117
Post-Launch Reception hosted by Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne

NASA invitees, accompanied by their spouse or a guest, may attend a post-launch reception sponsored by Pratt-Whitney Rocketdyne at the Doubletree Hotel Cocoa Beach, Florida, on or about Friday, June 8, 2007, from 9:00 p.m. – 11:00 p.m. This event is to be held in conjunction with the launch of STS-117, at the Kennedy Space Center.

This event will be a widely-attended gathering of approximately 150-200 representatives of government, the aerospace industry and the community. Heavy hors d'oeuvres will be served at a cost of approximately $25 per person. I find that the reception meets the requirements of a "widely attended gathering" as defined in 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(2). I have determined that free attendance at the above mentioned reception is in the interest of the agency because it will further agency programs and operations.

Accordingly, NASA employees that have been invited to attend may accept free attendance at the event. They may also accept invitations for accompanying spouses or guests. NASA employees whose duties may substantially affect Pratt-Whitney Rocketdyne, such as by way of procurement duties, should seek an individual determination pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(3)(i), regarding participation in this event from their local ethics counselor.
