

NON-REIMBURSABLE SPACE ACT AGREEMENT BETWEEN SPACEHAB INC.
AND NASA
FOR UTILIZATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SPACE STATION AS A NATIONAL LAB

ARTICLE 1. AUTHORITY AND PARTIES

In accordance with The National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, as amended (42 U.S.C. 2473 (c)), this Agreement is entered into by The National Aeronautics and Space Administration located at 300 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20546 (hereinafter referred to as "NASA") and SPACEHAB Inc., a corporation formed under the laws of the State of Washington and having its principal office at 12130 Highway 3 Building 1, Webster, TX 77598, (hereinafter referred to as "SPACEHAB" or "Partner"). NASA and Partner may be individually referred to as a "Party" and collectively referred to as the "Parties."

ARTICLE 2. PURPOSE AND NASA'S COMMITMENT

NASA plans to operate a share of the U.S. accommodations on the International Space Station (ISS) as a national laboratory in accordance with the NASA Authorization Act of 2005. To fulfill this mandate NASA released an announcement for proposals entitled the "National Lab Opportunity - Opportunity for the use of the International Space Station by U.S. Non-Government Entities for Research and Development and Industrial Processing Purposes." SPACEHAB Inc. responded to that announcement with a proposal to utilize the ISS for space-based on-orbit development of a salmonella vaccine. The proposed approach during the pre-assembly complete phase will include one controlled flight study to document the virulence levels and to finalize the reproducible pre-flight, on-orbit, and post flight operations. If successful, additional flights during the pre-assembly complete phase will be to produce batches of salmonella microorganisms grown and preserved in space for SPACEHAB to use in partnership with vaccine and pharmaceutical companies for use in vaccine development.

To enable research during the ISS assembly phase, SPACEHAB can utilize the existing NASA Space Act Agreement with Bioserve Space Technologies to provide for limited launch opportunities. Utilization of this existing agreement will allow SPACEHAB to demonstrate early proof-of-concept research. If this proof-of concept research is successful SPACEHAB could proceed with dedicated SPACEHAB capabilities consistent with available space restrictions on the ISS during the ISS post-assembly phase.

ARTICLE 3. RESPONSIBILITIES

A. SPACEHAB will use reasonable efforts to:

1. Ensure the majority of the research and development conducted by SPACEHAB has commercial support or applications.

2. Maximize the utilization of all flight opportunities made possible during the assembly phase and made available to SPACEHAB for research and development proof-of-concepts to remove any technical or research barriers that would inhibit full scale production during the post-assembly complete phase.
3. Conduct all flight research and development in accordance with NASA payload requirements.
4. Provide NASA with Operational Reports* on all payloads flown under this agreement.
5. Provide NASA with Findings Reports* on the findings from the research and development conducted with payloads flown under this agreement.

B. NASA will use reasonable efforts to:

1. For Phase A (remaining ISS assembly phase) provide SPACEHAB manifest opportunities thru the existing agreement with Bioserve Space Technologies consisting of Commercial Generic Bioprocessing Apparatus Science Inserts (CSIs) on Space Shuttle flights (as stated in Article 3) for the remaining assembly phase of the International Space Station to enable path finder research and development. SPACEHAB is responsible for negotiating directly with Bioserve Space Technologies for available flight opportunities utilizing Commercial Generic Bioprocessing Apparatus Science Inserts (CSIs).

For Phase B (post assembly phase) provide SPACEHAB on-orbit manifested space at NASA's discretion on the ISS. It is anticipated that SPACEHAB will arrange for flight to the ISS through commercial providers during Phase B.

2. Provide SPACEHAB appropriate on-orbit ISS resources to allow SPACEHAB to effectively conduct research and development on the ISS, pre- and post-assembly complete, at NASA's discretion.
3. Work with SPACEHAB to identify transportation services by communicating with possible vendors that NASA has provided SPACEHAB with a commitment of on-orbit space allocations. Such communications to be performed at the request of SPACEHAB.
4. Negotiate with SPACEHAB on terms of access to NASA's inventory of cold stowage systems.

There will be no transfer of funds or other financial obligations between the Parties under this Agreement and each Party will fund its own participation. All activities under or pursuant to this Agreement are subject to the availability of funds, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to require obligation or payment of funds in violation of the Anti-Deficiency Act, Title 31 U.S.C. § 1341.

ARTICLE 6. PRIORITY OF USE

Any schedule or milestone in this Agreement is estimated based upon the Parties' current understanding of the projected use of the test facilities and equipment by NASA personnel. In the event NASA's projected usage changes, Partner shall be given reasonable notice of that change, so that the schedule and milestones may be adjusted accordingly. The Parties agree that NASA usage of the test facilities, equipment, and personnel shall have priority over the usage planned in this Agreement. Should a conflict arise, NASA in its sole discretion shall determine whether to exercise that priority. Likewise, should a conflict arise as between two commercial users, NASA, in its sole discretion, shall determine the priority as between the two users. This Agreement does not obligate NASA to seek alternative government property or services under the jurisdiction of NASA at other locations.

ARTICLE 7. NONEXCLUSIVITY

This Agreement is not exclusive; accordingly, NASA may enter into similar agreements for the same or similar purpose with other U.S. private or public entities.

ARTICLE 8. LIABILITY AND RISK OF LOSS

1. The objective of this article is to establish a cross-waiver of liability in the interest of encouraging participation in the exploration, exploitation, and use of outer space through the International Space Station (ISS). The Parties intend that the cross-waiver of liability be broadly construed to achieve this objective.

2. For the purposes of this Article:

a. The term "Damage" means:

- (i) Bodily injury to, or other impairment of health of, or death of, any person;

The invention and patent rights set forth herein are applicable to any employees, contractors, subcontractors, or other entities having a legal relationship with Partner that are assigned, tasked, or contracted with to perform specified Partner activities under this Agreement. Partner agrees to inform such employees, contractors, subcontractors, or other entities of the obligations under this clause and to bind them to such obligations.

2. Based on the purpose and scope of this Agreement, and the responsibilities of the Parties, NASA has made an administrative determination that the provisions of section 305(a) of the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, as amended (42 U.S.C. § 2457(a)), do not apply to this Agreement. Therefore, title to inventions made (conceived or first actually reduced to practice) as a result of activities performed under this Agreement will remain with the respective inventing party(ies). No invention or patent rights are exchanged between or granted by such parties under this Agreement except that NASA and Partner agree to use reasonable efforts to identify and report to each other any invention that is believed to have been made jointly by employees of Partner and employees of NASA (including employees of such NASA contractors, subcontractors, or other entities), and to consult and agree as to the responsibilities and course of action to be taken to establish and maintain patent protection on such invention and on the terms and conditions of any license or other rights to be exchanged or granted by or between NASA and Partner.

the use of information generated hereunder, or as to the merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose of such research, information, or resulting product, or that the equipment, facilities, technical information, or services provided will accomplish the intended results or are safe for any purpose including the intended purpose, or that any of the above will not interfere with privately owned rights of others. Neither the government nor its contractors shall be liable for special, consequential or incidental damages attributed to such equipment, facilities, technical information, or services provided under this Agreement or such research, information, or resulting products made or developed under or as a result of this Agreement.

- (b) Equipment, facilities, technical information, and services provided by Partner under this Agreement are provided "as is." Partner makes no express or implied warranty as to the condition of such equipment, facilities, technical information, or services, or as to the condition of any research or information generated under this Agreement, or as to any products made or developed under or as a result of this Agreement including as a result of the use of information generated hereunder, or as to the merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose of such research, information, or resulting product, or that the equipment, facilities, technical information, or services provided will accomplish the intended results or are safe for any purpose including the intended purpose, or that any of the above will not interfere with privately owned rights of others. This Agreement becomes effective upon the date of the last signature below and shall remain in effect for a period of 5 years from the date of the last signature, with possible options to follow. The options can be exercised by the request of SPACEHAB and agreement by NASA, which agreement will not be unreasonably withheld. In considering SPACEHAB's request for exercising the option, NASA will take into account the Agency's current and future plans for facilities and services that would be impacted by the extension, the extend of SPACEHAB's commercial business including the amount of non federal funds invested, and other non-federal demands for the same NASA goods and/or services.

ARTICLE 16. RIGHT TO TERMINATE

Either Party may unilaterally terminate this Agreement by providing 90 calendar days written notice to the other Party.

ARTICLE 17. CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS

The obligations of the Parties set forth in the provisions, "Liability and Risk of Loss," "Intellectual Property Rights," and "Disclaimer of Warranty" shall continue to apply after the expiration or termination of this Agreement.
