

Before melt

The ice above the ocean is bright – it is dark under the ice

After melt

Above the ice is darker – much more light is transmitted under the ice

Light and nutrients = phytoplankton bloom