HOW IT WORKS

TopCoder has developed a model for crowdsourcing product development where members of a global community compete against each other to create assets for customers

- TopCoder connects its corporate customers to the world's top technical talent by hosting online competitions
- Community: More than 400,000 members from 220+ countries
- Model leads to 30-80% cost savings over in-house or outsourcing, with predictable quality and speed
