

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

COMMERCIAL
CREW

LAUNCH AMERICA

FACE OF THE FUTURE

Eric Boe

www.nasa.gov

ERIC BOE
NASA ASTRONAUT

Current Assignment: Training for a Commercial Crew flight test to the International Space Station on Boeing's CST-100 Starliner and SpaceX's Crew Dragon

Hometown: Atlanta

Education: United States Air Force Academy,
Georgia Institute of Technology

Flight Training: 6,000 hours in more than 50 aircraft

Time in Space: 28 Days

Missions: STS-126, STS-133

Achievements: Hertz Foundation Fellowship for graduate studies, NASA Space Flight and Defense Superior Service Medals

Previous Assignments: Pilot, NASA Director of Operations at the Gagarin Cosmonaut Training Center in Star City, Russia, Deputy Chief of the Astronaut Office and United States Air Force Colonel

Military Experience: 55 combat missions in the F-15C over Iraq in support of Operation Southern Watch

Hobbies: Outdoor sports, reading, scuba diving and skiing