SUBJECT: Guidance Regarding Attendance by NASA Attendees at the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Going to Extremes Space Lecture and Reception on June 1, 2016

On June 1, 2016, the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum (NASM) will host a reception and lecture "Going to Extremes: Putting the Squeeze on Life" part of the 2016 Space Lecture Series in Washington, DC, with a reception starting at 6:00 p.m. The guest speaker is Dr. Pamela G. Conrad, an Astrobiologist at the Goddard Space Flight Center, National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

This is an official Smithsonian US Government event. Accordingly, invited NASA employees may accept the courtesy of the food and beverages without further formality.
