SUBJECT: Determination Regarding Attendance by NASA Employees at the ORS-3 Post-Launch Reception hosted by Ball Aerospace & Technologies Corporation and Orbital Sciences Corporation on November 19, 2013

On November 19, 2013, Ball Aerospace & Technologies Corporation (Ball) and Orbital Sciences Corporation (Orbital) will host the Operationally Responsive Space (ORS)-3 Post-Launch Reception at the Wallops Flight Facility Rocket Club from 5:30 PM to 8:00 PM. This event will provide a forum to discuss the accomplishments of the ORS-3 mission.

Approximately 200 guests have been invited to attend. Invitees include members of Congress and Congressional staff, aerospace industry representatives, academia, and personnel from other Federal agencies. The cost of the event, which includes food and beverages, will be approximately $25.00 per person. I find that the event meets the requirements of a "widely attended gathering" as defined in 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(2).

I further determine that free attendance at the above mentioned event is in the interest of the agency because it will further agency programs and operations. Attendance at this event will allow NASA attendees to exchange information regarding various NASA programs. Accordingly, NASA employees (subject to the exceptions noted below) who have been invited to attend may accept free attendance at the event.

However, NASA employees whose duties may substantially affect the event sponsors, such as by way of contracting duties, should seek an individual determination pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(3)(i), regarding participation in this event from their local ethics counselor. Moreover, NASA employees who are in non-career positions in which Executive Order 13490 requires signing an ethics pledge may only attend if they reimburse the sponsors the value of the event.
