SUBJECT: Determination Regarding Attendance by NASA Employees at a GOES-T Post-Launch Reception hosted by Lockheed Martin on or about March 1, 2022

Lockheed Martin will hold a GOES-T Post-Launch Reception at Rising Tide & Table, 523 Glen Cheek Dr, Port Canaveral, FL 32920, 6:00-9:00 p.m. on or about March 1, 2022.

Approximately 300 guests have been invited to attend. Invitees include members of the legislative branch, state and local government officials, industry representatives, international partners, and personnel from other Federal agencies. The value of the event, which includes all food and refreshments, will be approximately $34 per person. I find that this event meets the requirements of a "widely attended gathering" as defined in 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(2).

I further determine that free attendance at the above-mentioned event is in the interest of the agency because it will further agency programs and operations. Attendance at this event will allow NASA attendees to exchange information regarding various NASA programs. Accordingly, NASA employees (subject to the exceptions noted below) who have been invited to attend may accept free attendance for themselves and a guest to this event.

However, NASA employees whose duties may substantially affect an event sponsor, such as by way of contracting duties, should seek an individual determination pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(3)(i), regarding participation in this event from their local ethics counselor. Moreover, NASA employees who are in non-career positions in which Executive Order 13989 requires signing an ethics pledge may only accept the snacks and beverages, if they reimburse the sponsor the value of the event accepted for themselves and their guest.

Attendees are reminded to exercise any COVID-19 precautions appropriate to their individual situation.
