<DIV><U>You asked about the Northwest NASA relationship</U>.</DIV>

[REDACTED]

NASA
and Northwest (not myself) have worked on many many projects over the years, ranging from National Air Space issues to Structural research etc. </DIV>

[REDACTED]

An individual at that meeting arranged for me to meet the Director of Ames and some of the computer sciences group. I discovered a common interest in both aviation security and research. </DIV>

[REDACTED]

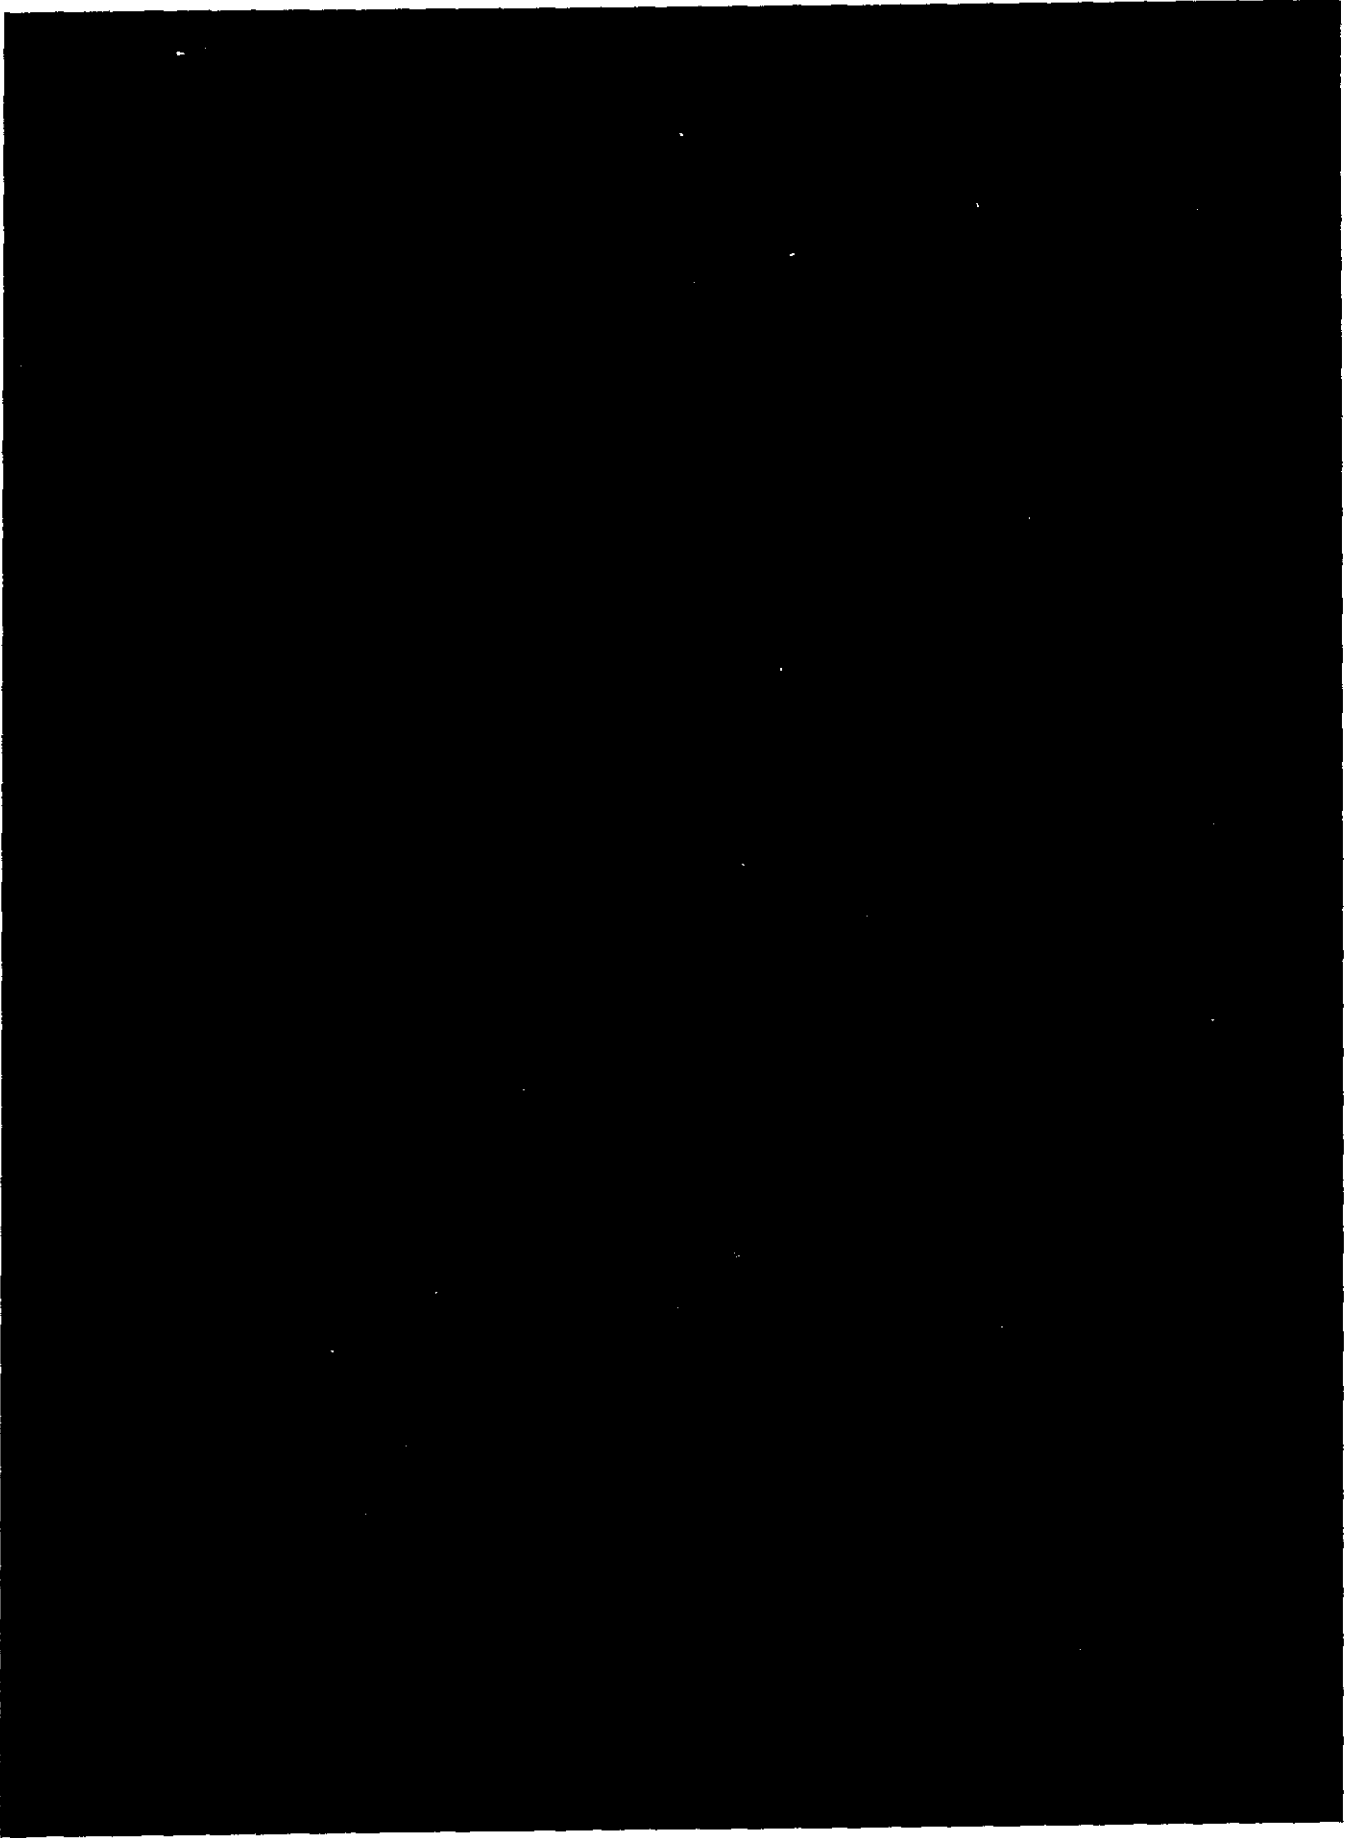

<DIV>At this moment NASA and Northwest share a mutual desire to explore various options available to solve the issues raised by 9/11.
We have no formal agreement between us on this issue
