

Small Innovative Missions for Planetary Exploration

- Solicitation for rideshare missions to conduct Planetary Science
 - SIMPLEx-1 (2014)
 - $5.6M cost cap
 - 6U max size
 - Solicited via ROSES
 - SIMPLEx-2 (2018)
 - $55M cap
 - up to 180 kg
 - Targeted specific launch opportunities
 - Solicited via SALMON
 - SIMPLEx-3 (TBD)

Recent Highlights

LunaH-Map being transported for integration into the Orion Stage Adaptor for Artemis I

Current Small Spacecraft Activities/Future Plans

- Lunar Trailblazer CDR – July 12-14, 2021
- Janus Independent Review – August 31, 2021
- LunaH-Map launch with Artemis I – late 2021/early 2022
- Future SIMPLEx calls will be announced

Point(s) of Contact

- Carolyn Mercer, Program Executive
- cmercerc@nasa.gov
- Doris Daou, Program Scientist
- doris.daou-1@nasa.gov

Ingenuity Helicopter
as viewed by the Perseverance
Remote
Microscopic Imager

May, 2021

