Ms. Kimberly S. Miller

*Deputy Director, Integration and Management Office (IMO)
NASA Aeronautics Research Mission Directorate (ARMD)*

Kimberly Miller is the deputy director for the Integration and Management Office (IMO) within ARMD at NASA Headquarters in Washington, DC. In collaboration with the IMO director, she assists in managing key ARMD processes and activities including strategic communications; STEM engagement; the integration of ARMD, NASA strategic planning and performance reporting; various program support activities including internal reviews; program and mission support resources and technology requirements; and operations management.

She supports the ARMD associate administrator in a broad range of mission directorate activities, including strategic and program planning, budget development, program review and evaluation, and external coordination.

Miller previously served as the administrative officer for ARMD.

Prior to NASA, Miller served at the former U.S. Information Agency and the Department of the Interior as a staff assistant and administrative officer.

She began her career in the late 1980s at the Rural Electrification Administration in the Department of Agriculture, and then at the Voice of America.
