Special Hiring Authorities

The Federal Government offers unique hiring paths to help hire individuals that represent our diversity society. Learn more about some of these hiring paths and your eligibility.

INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES (SCHEDULE A)
“Schedule A” is a special hiring authority that gives federal agencies an optional, and potentially quicker way to hire individuals with disabilities. Applying under Schedule A is an exception to the traditional competitive hiring process.

ELIGIBILITY
You can apply for jobs under Schedule A if you are a person with an intellectual disability, a severe physical disability or a psychiatric disability.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION
To be eligible, you must provide a “proof of disability” letter stating that you have an intellectual disability, severe physical disability or psychiatric disability. The letter must be from a licensed medical professional, a licensed vocational rehabilitation specialist, or any federal, state, or local agency that issues or provides disability benefits.

OTHER RESOURCES
Selective Placement Program Coordinators help agencies recruit, hire and accommodate people with disabilities. They can guide you through the application process and answer questions. Learn more here: https://www.opm.gov/policy-data-oversight/disability-employment/

You’re eligible if you have at least two years of service with the Peace Corps or one year of service with AmeriCorps VISTA. Your non-competitive eligibility lasts for one year after your complete your Peace Corps or AmeriCorps service, but federal agencies may extend the period for up to three years if you meet certain criteria.
