

OFFICE OF SMALL BUSINESS PROGRAMS at Ames Research Center

The NASA Ames Research Center Office of Small Business Programs (OSBP) is dedicated to promoting and facilitating the involvement of small businesses in NASA's missions. Located in Silicon Valley, CA, the office ensures that small enterprises have significant opportunities to participate in NASA contracts and subcontracts. Through outreach, advocacy, and support, the OSBP helps small businesses navigate the complexities of working with NASA, providing resources, training, and guidance. By engaging with small businesses, the NASA Ames OSBP leverages innovative solutions and cutting-edge technologies, contributing to advancements in aerospace, aeronautics, and space exploration while fostering economic growth and job creation.

CENTER MISSION

Ames Research Center (ARC), located in California's Silicon Valley, enables exploration through selected developments, innovative technologies, and interdisciplinary scientific discovery. ARC provides leadership in astrobiology; microsatellites; technologies for the Crew Exploration Vehicle (CEV), Crew Launch Vehicle (CLV), and Heavy Lift Vehicle (HLV); the search for habitable planets; supercomputing; intelligent/adaptive systems; advanced thermal protection; and airborne astronomy. ARC develops tools for a safer, more efficient national airspace and unique partnerships benefiting NASA's mission.

NASA Research Park (NRP) at NASA Ames Research Center in Silicon Valley is a world-class shared-use research and development and education campus for industry, academia, nonprofits, and government. NRP provides a physical place for innovation and entrepreneurship and serves as a technology accelerator through fostering both informal and formal collaborations. Today, the NRP houses more than 70 industry and university partners, with commercially standard leases for onsite collaborating with NASA on a variety of technologies and disciplines.
