SUBJECT: Determination Regarding Attendance by NASA employees at the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics Event on June 3, 2026

On June 3, 2026, the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA), a nonprofit organization under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, will host a networking reception focusing on space, aviation, and innovation at the Cannon Caucus Room, Cannon House Office Building, Washington, DC, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Approximately 550 people have been invited to attend. Guests of NASA personnel are not invited. Attendees will have a diversity of views or interests and will include members of Congress and their staff, NASA personnel, industry stakeholders, academia, and trade groups. The estimated cost of the event, including all food and beverages, is $15 per person.

AIAA is in control of the organizing, planning and invitations for this event. Attendance at this event will allow NASA attendees to exchange information regarding various NASA programs. I find that the event meets the requirements of a “widely attended gathering” as defined in 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(2).

I further determine that there is an Agency interest in having NASA personnel attend the event because it will provide an opportunity for the invited persons to exchange ideas and views pertaining to NASA’s policies, programs and operations. NASA employees, who do not have a significant role in a matter affecting the interests of the sponsor may accept an invitation for free attendance to the event. In those circumstances, I find that the Agency’s interest in attendance outweighs any concern that the individual may be, or may appear to be, improperly influenced in the performance of their duties.

However, NASA employees who have a significant role in any pending matter affecting the interests of AIAA, such as procurement duties, program management, or negotiating or administering a Space Act Agreement, should seek a separate determination from their local ethics counselor as to whether they may accept the invitation.
